

DR TASSADUQ HUSSAIN

- Graduated from KEMC, Lahore, (1975); got MPhil from PGMI, Lahore (1983); served in Pakistan and Libya for 41 years in several faculty positions to teach various disciplines of Anatomy, especially the Neuroanatomy and Embryology at both under- & postgraduate levels with the longest spell at CPMC, Lahore, since its inception.
- Acted as co-supervisor and supervisor for MPhil students in Anatomy; author of many books on all the disciplines of Anatomy; and countless research papers with a primary interest in understanding the role of trace metals, antioxidants and herbs on body tissues, especially the testes and liver.
- Honoured with Bu-Ali Sina Award (1989) by Science Forum, Pakistan; Junior Research Award (1997), by National Academy of Medical Sciences, Pakistan; and Fellowship (1999) by NAMS-Pakistan in recognition of meritorious services rendered for the cause of science, education and research in medical sciences and recently, Honoured with Lifetime Achievement Award by Central Park Medical College, Lahore.

